Just a note to ask prayer...

I, David, am scheduled for Hernia surgery today, Friday, March 1, around 2 pm.

Please be in prayer for me. It is not super serious but could get that way. I have a HUGE ballooned stomach. It got worse while in India and has gotten steadily worse since coming home.

I should be in the hospital for a couple of days, probably. I will be in Memorial Hospital in Chattanooga. Dr. Rose, the doctor, is a fine Christian gentleman.

We are trusting the Lord and unafraid. It was a blessing to get this finally scheduled. I am suppose to go to Africa in April, Lord willing.

Your prayers are appreciated! God bless each of you.

David Bennett

"I FACE THIS OPERATION"

I face this operation ---
The doctor and his knife ---
With great appreciation
For him and his vocation ---
His skill and application
That touches now my life.I face this operation ---
The doctor and his knife ---
Without one hesitation ---
Without fear's agitation ---
Sans thought of cancellation ---
But with great peace in life.I face this operation ---
The doctor and his knife ---

With heartfelt exaltation
 Of God --- and admiration ---
 For His all-wise creation
 Of body, soul, and life.

I face this operation ---
 The doctor and his knife ---
 With great anticipation
 To speak of God's salvation
 To those whose occupation
 Now rubs my joyful life.

I face this operation ---
 The doctor and his knife ---
 And trust the situation ---
 'Midst pain and medication ---
 Will be a demonstration
 Of faith in God for life.

I face this operation ---
 The doctor and his knife ---
 Without one reservation ---
 But with the realization
 That I'm God's illustration
 To dead men of true life.

I face this operation ---
 The doctor and his knife ---
 With this lone supplication:
 Lord, make me an oblation ---
 A living presentation
 Of Christ's meek death --- and life.
