A new President!

Zambia's president passed away in October 2014. The country held elections on January 20th that lasted for a couple days to elect the new president. The election was peaceful for the most part and transition of power seemed stable. The new president is Edgar Lunga. Mr. Lungu, who headed both the Justice and Defense Ministries in the previous government, will serve out the remainder of President Michael Sata's term until new elections in the fall of 2016.

Deputation Update:

January was a busy month and we are excited about the churches we were able to be in. God provided many new prayer partners. He also brought along 3 packed month. We will be at churches in TN, NM, IL, OH, VA and MO. We have seen the Lord work in the lives of people as we have shared about the ministry in Zambia and tried to be an encouragement in the area of world missions. I have had the opportunity to talk with several that believed the Lord leading them into missions.

Z4 Update:

Amanda is doing well. Please continue to pray for her and little Zadie. Starting in February, Amanda and Zimeri will be staying at home while I take the two older kids with me to continue deputation.

As you pray for us...

Please keep the following in mind:

- Souls saved and people to surrender to God's call on their life
- The power of God on our lives as we share the ministry
- Our kids to see our love for God as we obey Him
- For the salvation of our younger children
- To be leaving for Zambia by the end of 2015
- 4th baby due in March/April 2015
