Dear friends in Christ:

Oh, for the vocabulary and language skills to express the satisfaction and joy of a better comprehension of what it means to “abide In Him” and to “enter into His rest”. It is certainly rewarding to find our satisfaction totally in Him. I guess that I am admitting to being a slow learner but it surely is a peace that passes understanding.

Along that line, it has become a real joy and thrill to read over and pray for the people who support us. It is crystal clear that His grace in our lives is being channeled to us through the grace of God’s people. I appreciate your love for God and our family. I think this paragraph comes to my mind and heart through the teaching of II Corinthians chapter nine.

I would appreciate your prayers for this weekend (most people are getting this by email). I will be preaching in New Jersey for a younger friend of mine. He is struggling with cancer and all that accompanies that trip. So, I would like for my visit to make a difference and be a blessing to the church and his family.

Thank you,

Ed & Bonnie Gibson
