Greeting one again to our friends in Christ:

I continually stand amazed at the work of God in our life. He surely surprises me by providing new and enjoyable ways for us to serve Him and minister to others. It just never gets old to talk with people about the Lord and how He works on our behalf.

I had a very fulfilling meeting with the pastor and people of the Maranatha Baptist Church in Millville, New Jersey. God did bond our hearts and lives together and we were all refreshed by His presence. This was not an evangelistic meeting but a real revival of God's people.

Since then, I have had the opportunity to minister to a small church that is just trying to get started. This is a black church (I don't know if we should identify a church by color) and it was definitely a cross-cultural experience.

From there it was two weeks with a small country church like the culture I grew up with in Kentucky. Being in these churches remind me of how important your monthly support is for us. It is good to help people that do not have many people wanting to help them. I love it!

In Him,

Ed & Bonnie Gibson
