JESUS GOD IN THE BEGINNING

In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth (Genesis 1:1).

Part of my job (the greatest one on earth) is to equip the saints to do God's work. Thinking of ways to make cult evangelism easy for you captures many hours of my "think time." God is so awesome, so powerful, so unsearchable so marvelous, so kind, so gracious, so longsuffering, so forgiving, so faithful, so near to those who love Him, that no group of unbelievers can put Him in a box and limit who He is or what He can do. That is precisely what cult leaders do. They create false gods, who they like, and then convince their followers to worship them. All false religion is simply idolatry. When Jesus spoke to the religious leaders of His day, He left them speechless. The power of God's Word still has that same effect today and will have forever. Did you ever notice how many times Jesus silenced His enemies? Here is one example that I have seen work on JWs the same way it did here:
Matt 22:41-46: 41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The Son of David. 43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord [God], saying, 44 The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool [Ps 110:1]? 45 If David then call him Lord [God], how is he his son? 46 And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

The implication of this text is clear. The Messiah would be both God and Man. The JWs also go away with the same conviction and silence as the Pharisees. This is also true with John 1:1-3 and Genesis 1:1. What did God do in the beginning? The composite expression of John 1:1-3 is that Jesus, in the beginning, created all things. That's it in the "nut shell." So you might ask the next JW you see this question: "Do you (the JW) know why I know for sure that the Watchtower's John 1:1c (a god) is not correct?" The JW will say, "How?" You can say, "Because Genesis 1:1 says that God, not a god, created the heaven and the earth." Be sure to have the JW read Isa 44:24. Next, then the five verses in Zechariah that identify Jesus as Jehovah.

WHAT'S HAPPENING ON THE FIELD

KEEP THEM COMING LORD

Contacts with JW's, Mormons and this time a Muslim man and his young daughter is what we pray about continually. It all started in Hazlehurst, GA, with a sit-down talk with a JW man and his wife, then a visit to two Mormon female missionaries and then back to the Atlanta area for two meetings with a JW family (husband, wife and daughter in her 20's).

While doing my walking exercises at the Mall of Georgia, I saw a tall, dark-skinned Muslim doing his prayer ritual on the second level with his prayer rug like he was in the mosque. Just then, a security guard stopped by me and I asked him if he was allowed to do that in the mall. He said that he would take care of it. I sensed that the Muslim man was simply trying to intimidate people. On my way around the loop, I saw him walking down the corridor with his young daughter, and when we exchanged glances, I reached for my little card with the 10 Commandments on it and asked him if he believed in them. I hoped that the Lord would touch his daughter's heart with something that was said. I asked him if he had ever broken any of the commandments and he said, "No!" I replied forcefully by saying, "You mean to tell me that you never lied to your parents as a child?" Again he insisted that he had never broken any of Allah's commandments. Then he mentioned his prophet, Mohammad. His little girl was listening. I said that Mohammad is no different than the Mormon prophet or any of the others. They created their own god and convinced their followers to believe in him. That's what is called idolatry. The truth is that pre-Islamic Arabs in Mohammad's day worshiped 360 gods and he simply reduced it to one, the moon god, Sin whose title was the most high or Allah. He said that he would rather answer to Allah rather than the Christian's God. I said, "Sir, you will have your chance to see the God who created the heaven and earth someday and it won't be Allah." Lord, please help that little girl to see the truth.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOK (TSSB)

I just got a letter from a pastor today who said that he believed God has great things in store for TSSB. One pastor said that he was going to have a meeting with his Sunday school teachers to encourage them to be certified. Seven young people (ages 8-12) have been certified for lessons 1-3. Got an email from a man who is a Sunday school teacher who said he has taken the challenge. Thank you Lord! This is the beginning of rebuilding the foundational truths that have been missing in the permanent memory of our people for nearly two generations. This photo shows some of the first responders who have taken the challenge.

We have built a separate website to support The Sunday School Book and to help you understand the great value in becoming certified. One can certify first and second graders in the first lesson, which is the 10 Commandments. Once a person is certified for a lesson or lessons, he or she will continue to teach what has been learned with the goal of reaching the permanent memory with each lesson. To be certified in all 12 lessons will put that person in the highest academic level of achievement and enable that person to truly teach others what he or she has actually learned him/herself.

"PUTTER'S PEN"

Ps 27:13 I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

Wow, what a verse for such troubled times. The week of July 4th was unbelievable. It started out celebrating the 240th year of America's Independence and ended with protests and the shooting of eleven and the death of 5 Dallas, TX policemen. More and more we are seeing unrest, hatred, fighting and killings in our country. It is easy for one to become overwhelmed with all the unrest our country is experiencing, but for the child of God, there is hope: From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I. Ps. 61:2. That Rock is Jesus, and He is still on the throne.

I would like to remind you (and me) that none of these events has taken the Lord by surprise and He still remains in charge of things. He has overcome the world (John 16:33) and through Him we are more than conquerors. (Ro 8:37). We can get through these troubled times with peace, His peace (John 14:27).

Yes, I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living, but praise the Lord: His goodness is still in the land of the living!

Until next time, Jehovah-jireh,
"Putter"
