Dear Friends in Christ:

Wow, here we are in a new year! That means we are aging and I want to share with you a blessing of seeing the years roll by. We get a front row seat to see God's love, grace and promises fulfilled in our life. It is a wonderful thing to watch Him fulfill His word. With that being said, I need to stop and thank you for being a major player in His plan. He is using you to show us His love and grace. Thank you very much.

I want to jot down some events coming up in our life that I am looking forward to being a participant.

- Speaking in different churches during their Wednesday night services.
- Sharing our life and ministry with the student body of Trinity Baptist College.
- Speaking at the ordination of a young pastor. His deceased father was a good friend.
- Teaching a church the principles of "Faith Promise" giving.
- Participating in a Bible Conference.

Here is one thing that I am not excited about being a participant.

- I will be having eye surgery on February 2, 2017.

Your prayers for all the above would be appreciated.

In Christ,

Ed & Bonnie Gibson
