National Pastors

Dear Partners & Friends,

MARCH 2017

February was a busy and eventful month with many opportunities for ministry. It began in Ghana and continued back in Liberia. In the midst of traveling and conferences, I still taught our college students on Friday nights and Saturday mornings. Clearly this is always the highlight of my week. These pastors, men, and woman have such a desire to know the Word of God. Brenda was quite active this month as well: teaching ladies, children, and also holding her Sunday school training seminars.

Mike Ward, Peter Adjai, Edgar Feghaly, Rick Osborn, Kerdoe Dwanyne

< I presented Pastor Peter Adjai with a Ryrie Study Bible. I gave each graduate one of these as a gift for their achievement.

Rev. Degraff receiving his ordination certificate.

What a blessing it was to preach the graduation service and give the ordination challenge to the two candidates!

< The umbrella is not because it was raining. It was to shade my bald head from the hot sun.

I was so thankful that I was able to participate in the first graduation of our ten students who all received their Bible Diplomas from The Faith Bible Institute.

They worked three long years and made many sacrifices to reach their goal.

A big "Thank You" to all those who helped sponsor these and other students!

We also met with Bro. Eric. He is helping us establish an NGO in Ghana. (Non-Government Organization.)

Praying over our 2 ordained men and their wives.

I appreciate so much Pastor Kerdoe Dwanyen traveling to Ghana with me. It was a great joy for me to meet Pastor & Mrs. Holdbrook. Bro. Dwanyen served under Pastor Holdbrook while attending Bible College in Ghana several years ago.

Brenda was busy during conference in Monrovia teaching both the ladies and the children.

I'll have two gallons of regular gasoline please!

This is how you feed hundreds of conference folks breakfast!

This is a photo report of some of the activities we enjoyed during the month of February. I also preached a baby dedication and a Ladies group anniversary. Brenda will be going to Ganta next week to speak at a Ladies Conference. She never dreamed she would be doing so much speaking to ladies! She is great!

Thank you all for your continued prayers and support. These are your mission dollars at work!
