September 2017

As many of you are heading into the Fall season we have just come through a dry winter and are heading into what promises to be a very HOT summer. The seasons of life, like the seasons of weather, always bring fresh challenges to our faith, but through it all God remains the same and we are thankful for His faithfulness to us in every season.

Andrew and Sheree have been “legally” married for two years and have two beautiful girls. Andrew is the coach of Botswana’s national rugby team and a gym manager. We met a few months back and they asked if we would conduct their “white wedding” where they say their vows before God. Andrew had a clear testimony of the day He was saved but when we questioned Sheree she was matter of fact in her South African accent when she said, “No Mike – I’m not saved.” Wow – the honesty was refreshing. At our dining room table we shared the gospel and Sheree readily received Christ. Please pray for this dear couple and their growth in the Lord. We also had the joy of serving in Daniel and Maureen’s wedding, two precious folks who truly love the Lord and have been a steadfast example to the new converts at church. Bro. Daniel is Scottish and has ran over 90 marathons!

It all began with an unexpected phone call on a Saturday morning. When the caller identified himself as a member of Parliament who wanted to secure some Bibles for his constituency we were overjoyed. We had the honor to meet with him and he shared his burden to provide the Word of God to the 40,000 people who live in his district, where many of the villages are considered remote and underdeveloped. A week ago we delivered 500 whole Bibles for distribution to the chiefs and village elders in those communities. Some “pastors” actually lead churches and do not have a Bible. God has opened a door for an unprecedented opportunity to reach into these areas with the Word of God. It was determined that the New Testaments with a presentation of the Gospel and a 20 lesson discipleship course built in would be better for the 40k people and a church in Washington state has pledged to provide a container with 60,000 New Testaments and 10,000 whole Bibles if we pay for the shipping. We’re in the process of determining what the cost will be and then will set out to raise the funds. We will tour each town and village to distribute the Scriptures and will have many opportunities to preach the Gospel publically. Please pray to Thank the Lord for such a wonderful opportunity. If you would like to help with the costs of shipping (Approx. $10,000) please contact me directly at pastormhaley@gmail.com. We have seen God do the miraculous time and again from the outset of this ministry and are eager to see the Lord do it again for this project.

Last month we were able to meet several other families for a BIMI South Africa Field Conference. We saw old friends and met new ones and were refreshed by the great fellowship, singing, and preaching. The pic below is of the Haley and Branch families enjoying Krispy Kreme donuts (YES Brothers and Sisters – Krispy Kreme’s in Africa) in Durban, South Africa. Yeah, I know. It’s not exactly suffering like David Livingstone did but...come on...it’s Krispy Kreme’s man!

Please remember Cindy in your prayers as she has pulled muscles in her shoulder moving a box of Bibles. She’s starting to figure out that we are not as young as we once were but don’t tell her I said so. And silly as it may sound, please pray for our little dog Mocha who has contracted a virus and is very sick.

We love you all and appreciate your partnership with us to reach Botswana with the Gospel of Christ.

Together in the harvest,
Mike and Cindy Haley
